Hot chocolate

As the weather gets colder, we will be serving hot chocolate outside Year 5 every Friday. Yum!

Year 2 Yoga

Year 2 enjoyed a yoga session on Wednesday afternoon. They had to carefully follow Jamie's instructions and replicate this as carefully as possible.

Cameron: "I enjoyed yoga because we learnt new movements and tricky balancing!"

Hymn practice

Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 thoroughly enjoyed their hymn practice lesson!

Sonny "I love singing the song in hymn practice because it makes me happy and

Year 3 Art

Art in year 3 this week, the children have been working with clay to design tiles. They planned their designs in their art book and then, using the mark making strategies that they have been learning about, they decorated their clay tiles.

Fire Brigade

Early Years had an exciting visit from the Fire fighters this week. The children really enjoyed getting to see the equipment used by the fire fighters.

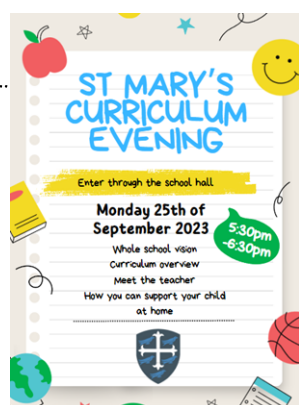

EYFS

On Wednesday 19th September the Early Years were visited by the Metropolitan Police team to talk to the children about how to stay safe and what number to call if they were to be in trouble. This is also one of our topics we are learning about People who
