

Religious Education
Other faiths: Islam

Key areas of learning

- Shahada: What Muslims believe
- The Mosque
- When/how Muslims pray

Computing

Programming B – Programming quizzes

Key areas of learning

- Identify the start of a sequence
- Show how to run a program
- Predict the outcome of a sequence of commands
- Create a program using a given design
- Choose characters for the design

Science

Living Things and Their Environment

Key areas of learning

- The differences between living, dead and never been alive
- A habitat is the name given to a place where plants or animals live
- Rainforests are hot and moist, and deserts as dry and hot or cold
- Each habitat has plants and animals adapted to survive
- A food chain describes 'who eats what' within a habitat

Maths

Statistics	Make tally charts Tables Block diagrams Interpreting pictograms
Position and Direction	Language of position Describe movement Describe turns Shape patten with turns

Year 2

Summer 2

History

Olympics History

- Countries from around the world compete in sporting activities during the Olympics
- The Ancient Greeks loved sport and the Olympic Games were the biggest sporting event in the ancient calendar.
- In 1908, London hosted the Olympics for the first time.
- London hosted the Olympics for the second time in 1948.
- London hosted the Olympics for the third time in 2012

English

Below are the key writing skills we will look at in our new non-fiction unit Big Cats:

- Rhetorical question
- Fascinating fact
- Comparatives
- Superlatives
- Onomatopoeia
- Labels
- Captions

PE

Year 2 have PE on Wednesdays.

They are expected to wear PE kits into school on this day.

