

I and eye

The pirate wore an eye patch.

I like to eat sweets.

piece and peace

There was only one piece of pie left.

The baby wouldn't give mummy any peace.

hole and whole

There is a hole in the ground.

James ate the whole cake!

be and bee

We will be in the park.

Eleanor was stung by the bee.

right and write

$$5 \times 5 = 25 \checkmark$$

That is the right answer.

Abi decided to write a story.

new and knew

Daniel liked his new hat.

Isabel knew the answer.

see and sea

Mabel could see a boat on the horizon.

The lighthouse was next to the sea.

bury and berry

The dog wanted to bury its ball.

The bird found a berry to eat.

through and threw

They drove through the tunnel.

Andrea threw the ball.

morning and mourning

The sun rises in the morning.

Jane was in mourning.

heard and herd

Ashley heard a good song on the radio.

There was a herd of cows.

no and know

There are no sweets left.

$$5 + 5 = 10 \checkmark$$

I know how to add up.

great and grate

My school is great!

I like to grate my carrot.

ate and eight

Andrew ate his dinner.

A spider has eight legs.

made and maid

Liam made a cake.

The maid hung out the clothes.

pair and pear

I found a pair of socks.

I would like to eat a juicy pear.

for and four

Sam went for a walk.

There are four apples.

witch and which

The witch has a broom.

Claire didn't know which drawer to choose.

your and you're

What is your favourite colour?

You're my best friend.

to, too and two

George went to the bookshop.

Alex wanted to play too.

I have two eyes.

their, there and they're

Their dinner was delicious.

My house is over there.

They're crossing the road carefully.

blue and blew

The sky is blue.

The boy blew up the balloon.

thyme and time

Thyme is a herb.

What time is it?

here and hear

I go to school here.

What can you hear?

one and won

There is one sweet in this jar.

She won the race.

sun and son

The sun is very bright.

She walked her son to school.

knight and night

The knight has very strong armour.

The forest was dark at night.

brake and break

Ben used the brake to stop the bike.

We took a break at school.

meet and meat

We meet to do work.

Meat was served at dinner.

ball and bawl

We like to play with the ball.

The boy began to bawl.

fair and fare

We had lots of fun at the fair.

We had to pay the fare.

accept and except

I love to accept birthday gifts.

I play football every day except Wednesday.

affect and effect

The plants were affected by the cold winter.

Tommy's behaviour had an effect on the rest of the class.

grown and groan

The puppy had grown so fast.

Uri fell over the rock and let out a big groan.

knot and not

The skipping ropes were in a huge knot.

We are not allowed to do that.

mail and male

The postman delivers the mail.

A male giraffe is called a bull.

main and mane

My house is on the main street.

The horse's mane was plaited.

medal and meddle

Everyone who took part received a medal.

Mum told me not to meddle with her things.

missed and mist

We've missed the train.

I could see a big cloud of mist at the top of the hill.

scene and seen

Everyone applauded after the final scene.

Have you seen my bag?

plain and plane

“Please choose a plain piece of paper,” said the teacher.

I’m going to America on a plane in the holidays.

weather and whether

Who can predict the weather?

Do you know whether you will be in when I call?

whose and who's

Whose coat is this?

Who's going to tidy this mess?

wear and where

I wear a school uniform.

Where are dad's shoes?

heel, heal and he'll

The back of Grace's heel was hurting.

Julia hoped her cut would heal soon.

"He'll fall if he's not careful," said Dad.

rain, rein and reign

It began to rain so Ada wore her coat.

The horse's reins were not on properly.

Who will reign the country next?

saw and sore

I saw a dinosaur munching on a tall tree.

She rubbed her sore feet after a long day at work.

would and wood

What would you like to do for your birthday?

We collected plenty of wood from the forest to build a cabin.

ewe and you

The lambs followed their mother as the ewe jumped over the fence.

Did you hear that thunderstorm last night?